

Reggie was born and raised in Paducah, KY and has been living in California for the past 12 years. He currently serves as Program Director for Will Rogers Middle School and Del Campo High School as well as one of the Graphic Designers for Improve Your Tomorrow, Inc. As Program Director, Reggie is responsible for managing and overseeing the academic success of the IYT Students ensuring that all students enrolled in the program are receiving the support that they need inside and outside the classroom and ultimately prepare them to be college eligible once graduating High School. As a Graphic Designer, Reggie's role is to create promotional materials that highlight the successes IYT as well as design apparel for staff and members. Prior to joining IYT, Reggie was a Coordinator for Residential Education at UC Santa Cruz in Colleges Nine and Ten where he supervised 6 Resident Assistants (RAs) and assisted them with implementing inclusive programming and supporting students within an apartment community of approximately 300 residents. While at UC Santa Cruz, Reggie also served as a Café Supervisor for Terry Freitas Café, which was a work study program that consisted of 27 Barista/Management staff that provided an open lounge space for the entire UCSC campus to study, hang out with friends, and host major events. Reggie received his bachelor's degree in Art with an emphasis in Graphic Design and Master's degree in Mass Communications at Murray State University in Kentucky. Reggie currently resides in Sacramento with his lovely wife, Dr. Domonique Casper Shaw.
